

Workshops and Special Events

Leave your pencils and type-A personalities at the door because our workshops are all about the fun. Under the supervision of Master Soapmaker Steve Duross, your group will create the colorful, moisture rich soaps and healing balms that we sell in our store. Using our proprietary base ingredients, you'll add extracts, oils and pigments while elbow deep in natural elements plus you and your group will take home samples of everything made during the workshop.

Here's how it works:

- The specific products and flavors are decided at the time of your party's booking.
- All parties are pre-paid at booking. There is a thirty-day cancellation notice with a non-refundable $100 holding fee.
- Time and dates to be determined at booking.
- Cold food and beverage to be provided by client.

- 1 to 6 people $240 hands-on
- 7 to 10 people $300 hands-on
- 11 to 25 people $350 demo with minimal hands-on

The Space

- 650 square feet on the 2nd floor
- Bench seating for 20 people
- Serving pieces and plates available (no charge)
- Plastic cups and napkins provided by you

The Event

We strive to make each event special, suiting personal tastes and preferences to the day's workshop. The following are a few examples of our favorite themed parties and events:

- Chocoholic Party – chocolate soap and chocolate lip balm
- Wine Tasting – Merlot soap & Chardonnay lip balm
- Martini Madness – Cocktail inspired soaps
- Baby Shower – baby duck soaps, belly balms, soothing soaps
- Bridal Party – sensual soaps and kissable lip potions
- Kids Party – PBJ or chocolate/cherry soaps, bubble gum lip balm
- Corporate Teams – a soap making/team building event

House Rules

Our event space is also the working kitchen for our handmade products. You and your guests will enter and exit through our store. In most cases, the store is operational during private events. For safety and security reasons, the following rules are at the discretion of D&L management and will result in immediate termination of the event without refund and in some cases, criminal prosecution.

- Obey the teacher at all times
- No drunken or disorderly behavior
- No belligerent or adversarial attitudes
- No arguments or fighting
- No stealing
